

GRE Vocabulary

"It's difficult to get an child to eat food he doesn't want to eat.

When Toby realized that his son would rather sit and starve than eat mahi-mahi, he gave in and made him a peanut butter and jelly sandwich."

"Adding protective heel taps to your dress shoes can the need to take them to the shoe repair store later, once the heels have worn down."

"Lisa's dinner parties are exhausting. She's an host who butts in and runs everyone's conversations, keeps an eye on what everyone is eating and makes sure you finish your vegetables, and even knocks on the bathroom door to make sure you're "okay in there.""

Exercise 10

(c) Adeet Phanse

GRE Word Bank

Word Bank: obviate, officious, obstinate

Word Bank for Puzzle 10

(c) Adeet Phanse