

GRE Vocabulary

"Despite your insistence that ethics are completely situational," said the philosophy professor, "I •••• that the existence of natural rights inevitably leads to certain immutable ethical boundaries."

"I'm annoyed whenever Americans move to England and suddenly start speaking with an •••••• British accent."

"Children can be so •••••• that, when you try to explain war to them, they say things like "But isn't that mean?""

"His •••••• attempt at negotiating a raise began with "I need more money, please" and ended with "Okay, sorry I asked.""

"The actress's public persona as a perky "girl next door" •••••• her private penchant for abusing her assistants and demanding that her trailer be filled with ridiculous luxury goods."

"The data •••••• the accepted theory - either we've made a mistake, or we have an amazing new discovery on our hands."

Exercise 23

(c) Adeet Phanse

GRE Word Bank

Word Bank: artless, belied, artless, belies, affected, aver

Word Bank for Puzzle 23

(c) Adeet Phanse